* Payments to Cunningham and Walsh, Inc., for advertising and associated production costs represent expenditure on our advertising campaign for 1966/67. We have maintained such advertising programs over recent years; the amount spent on these programs varies from year to year, according to the availability of funds for this purpose. Cunningham and Walsh, Inc. acts as our advertising agency and is responsible for carrying into effect the advertising campaign approved by our headquarters in Australia. There is no formal contractual agreement with the agency, which looks after our account on the usual basis and collects its commission arising from the placement of advertising.

 Payments to J. Walter Thompson Co. for advertising and associated production costs represents expenditure on advertising to be financed on a joint basis with Pan American World Airways, for whom J. Walter Thompson is the advertising agency. There is no formal contractual agreement on our part with the agency, which produced and placed specified Australian travel advertising to the joint order of Pan American World Airways and the Australian National Travel Association. Our arrangement with Pan American is for this Association to meet all bills for such advertising with partial reimbursement later by Pan America.

 The sums of $9012 and $5500 paid to the Pacific Area Travel Association represent dues assessed by that Association, covering its member countries and others interested in the promotion of travel to the Pacific area. Since the dues paid to the Association vary each year according to the assessment, we have no formal agreement on the subject but accept the responsibility to meet the assessments as they are made.
